Blackmore group complaint - update April 2026

We recognise that this complaint has been with us for some time and that you have not received a recent update.

The group complaint about the FCA brought by and on behalf of certain investors in Blackmore Bonds Plc's mini-bonds remains under active investigation and is significantly progressed. Investigations of this nature can take longer where there are complex issues, as is the case here.

While we do not yet have a substantive update on the outcome, we will provide an update again within the next 8 weeks, or sooner if there is a significant development.

Thank you for your patience while we continue our work.

By way of reminder, we note the following announcement by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme on 20 January 2026 (accessible at Lonsdale Insurance Brokers Ltd | FSCS) that it is possible that there are customers who purchased Series 1 bonds who are eligible for compensation. We suggest you contact FSCS directly.
